

A curriculum which is current for preparing students for higher education and/or the world of work.

- 4.5.1 Graduating students have knowledge and skills necessary to obtain jobs that allow them to be self-supporting.
- 4.5.2 Employers are satisfied with performance of students/graduates.
- 4.5.3 Current graduates demonstrate proficiency in (the following performance categories) research, presentations, quantitative analysis, and relevant technological skills.

Revised: May 19, 2010
Adopted: June 28, 2010
Revised/Adopted: March 11, 2013
Revised: February 24, 2014
Revised: March 10, 2014