

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, September 23

- Attention Debate Club: Please remember that our next meeting is September 30th. Everyone is still welcome if you are interested in debate. The debate club meets in Mr. Thrall's room from 2:45-4pm.
- Today is the last day for Homecoming Tickets, get yours today during your lunch. There will be no ticket sales at the door.
- Attention all students, SADD, Students Against Destructive Decisions will have its first meeting of the school year on TODAY, at 2:40 in room 1240, Mr. Bollone's. If you would like to be a member of SADD but cannot attend Friday's meeting, please stop Mr. Bollone's classroom and sign-up.
- If any female or male would like to apply for the 2022-23 Scholar-Athlete scholarship
Please see Mrs. Mulheisen in the athletic office. The deadline is December 2nd.
- Any boy interested in playing lacrosse, please see Mr. Marsman this week.
- Students interested in getting involved in the “behind the scenes” activities in our Performing Arts Center should come into the Main Office of the High School to pick up an application form. You will be trained in sound, lighting, set construction and any and all other aspects of theater operation as well as assist in the operation of the theater during events like; choir and band concerts, the fall play, the spring musical, and other assorted uses of the theater by outside clients.
See Mr. Frank if you have any questions.
- Any girls interested in playing basketball, please see Coach Snyder in Room 1146 to get pre season workout dates and times.
- TWO COLLEGE REPS: will be visiting the high school TODAY.
-Eastern Michigan University is coming at 10:00am
-Wayne State University is coming at 12:30pm
Interested students can sign-up on Naviance or stop by the Counseling office. Look on Naviance for a complete list of visiting college reps and sign-up!

- The National Guard will visit during lunches on Tuesday September 27.
- The Navy will visit during lunches on Thursday September 29.

If you are interested in learning more about these programs, be sure to stop by their table!